

GRANT BALDWIN

BIO

Grant Baldwin is an engaging communicator and a leading expert at helping students prepare for life after high school.

With nearly a decade of experience working with and speaking to students, Grant has become a very popular and well-received speaker. He has a unique ability to captivate an audience with comedy and humor in one moment and yet still challenge them to think in the next. Grant has given hundreds of presentations and has spoken to over 100,000 students in 40 states through student leadership conferences, conventions, school assemblies, and other youth events.

Grant is the author of the book for students, Reality Check, a resource designed to help students make the transition from high school into college and the real world. He also just released the corresponding Teacher's Guide for the book.

Having worked with students for nearly a decade, Grant gets students. He has a unique ability to connect with and relate to their worlds. From sporting events to school cafeteria lunches, Grant has spent countless hours helping students deal with the ups and downs of life.

While Grant does love speaking and inspiring students, he loves his wife and daughters more! He was lucky enough to convince his gorgeous high school sweetheart, Sheila, to marry him and together they have two energetic little girls. When he's not traveling and speaking to students, Grant lives in Springfield, Missouri where he is a pretty normal guy. He likes golf, eBay, cookie dough ice cream, and long walks on the beach with his wife...except they don't have beaches in Missouri.
