Dear Grant:

Thank you for your presentations to the delegates of the 2009 Missouri FCCLA State Leadership Conference! Your keynote address was well received and I heard messages from your keynote referenced several times throughout the conference. I even used the "no excuses" line myself! From what I understand, your workshops were also a big hit. Many of the teachers said that their students really listened and took your messages to heart.

I have had many compliments on the conference, and I know that the keynote speaker's presentation at our first general session is a big part of setting the tone for the entire event. Thank you for doing your job so well!

We are grateful for your contributions of time and talent to our organization. It was a pleasure working with you with logistics prior to the conference as well as at the conference site. Best wishes as you continue motivating our youth to become better people and leaders.

Sincerely,

Christine Hollingsworth
